

ETL Pipeline 1:

This step corrects the columns in the CSV file to align with their corresponding values, as the columns were not matching the values.

ETL Pipeline 3:

This step transports the data from the source database to the data warehouse.

ETL Pipeline 2:

This step transports the data from the CSV file to the source database, while also performing transformations such as dropping null values, removing unnecessary columns, renaming columns, and generating new attributes.

